

Holly Jasinski, MS RYT

Holly brings more than twenty years of experience to the role of Resilient Spaces Program Facilitator. She served in leadership positions at Resilience and in various capacities at both national and community-based nonprofit organizations in Lansing and Chicago.

She is the former chair of the Ottawa County Human Trafficking Task Force and has been called on to be an expert witness in domestic violence cases. In addition to raising awareness about domestic and sexual violence, Holly has trained audiences on human trafficking, child abuse prevention, trauma-informed service delivery, and donor engagement.

Holly is a registered yoga teacher specializing in addressing compassion fatigue and secondary trauma for caregivers and helping professionals.

